

From the Transactions of the
Bristol and Gloucestershire Archaeological Society

Appendix to the same

by J. Maclean
1878-79, Vol. 3, 182-184

© The Society and the Author(s)

APPENDIX.

Certificates of CHANTRIES, COLLEGES, &c., COUNTIES OF GLOUCESTER and BRISTOL.

Dated 14th February, 2nd Edward VI. No. 22.

Communicated by SIR JOHN MACLEAN, F.S.A.

CHANTRIES IN THE CITY OF BRISTOL.

The Parische of Seynt Nicholas, in the foresaid Citie, where the howsolyng people is DCCC.

EBORARDE LEE FRENCH CHAUNTRIE, ffounde by the said Eborarde, by license of King Edwarde the third, for iiij prestes to celebrate, videlt.ij in the seid Church of Seynt Nicholas and the other ij in the Chapell of Radeliff, there to singe Dyvyn Service, & praye for the tranquyllitic of the seid King and the seid ffounder's sowle, & all christian solles. Incumbents.—Sir William Smythman oon of the two in Seynt Nicholas Church, of the age xlij yeres, havinge no other livinge, but onlie his salarie, which is yerely vj li. The Rome of the other Priest in the seid church is voide. Lewes Morgan, oone of the two priests in the aforesaid Chapel of Radeliff, of thage of lx yeres, havinge no other prouision butt his salarie, being vj li. William Bonor, the other priest in the said Chapell, of the age of xxxiiij yeres, havinge besides his salarie of vj li, oone yerely penceion of c.s. of the King's Maestic. Their ij salaries amounte to xviiij li. The landes and tenements belonging to the same are of the yerely value of xxxiiij li. xvij s. viij d., whereof in Reprises yerelic xliiij s. vijd., and so Remayneth clere ly the yere xxxij li. xiiij s. jd. Plate and Jewelles belonging to the same in Seynt Nicholas Church, esteemed to be xij ounce, xlvij s. The Ornamentes thereunto in the seid Church, valued att xvij s. ijd. Ornamentes thereof in Redeliff Church, valued at xxv s., Plates or Jewelles thereunto in that Church, noone.<sup>1</sup>

OURE LADIE SERVICE OR CHAUNTRIE, ffounde by oone William Spencer, to fynd and maynteyne a priest to singe in the seid church for ever, there to be at all Divyne Service & assistaunte to the curate & other in mynstracion of the Sacraments to the grete multitude of people in the said parish.<sup>2</sup> Thomas Gwynne,<sup>3</sup> Incumbent there, of the age of l yeris, havynge noe other livinge or promocion then the seid service, which is yerely vj li. The Landes and Tenementes belonginge to the same are of the clere yerelic value of vij li. iijs. whereof In Reprises yerely nil, and so remayneth clere by the yere vii li. iijs. Plate and Jewelles noone, Ornaments therunto belonginge, valued att xvij s.

<sup>1</sup> William Smythman, Lewis Morgan, and William Bonor, were each granted pensions of 100 s.

<sup>2</sup> According to the number of "howsolyng people," (Communicants) as stated above (860), the population at this time would have been about 1300.

<sup>3</sup> Thomas Gwynne was granted a pension of £1.

THE CHAPELL OF ST. JOHN EVANGELIST, otherwise called KNAPE CHAPELL, within the seid p'ish., ffounded by oone Thomas Knappe, to fynde and maynteyne in the same Chapell ij priests for ever, there to celebrate & synge daylie Dyvyne Service, & praye for the Sowle of the seid Thomas & Agnes his wife. Sir David Thomas,<sup>1</sup> Incumbente of the same, of the age lj yeris, havynge noe other livinge or promocion then in the seid Service, which is by the yere vj li. The rome of thother prieste now voide. The Landes and Tenements belonginge to the same are of the yerele value of xxj li. xvs., whereof in reprises yerelic xlix s., and so remayneth clere by the yere xix li. vj s. Plate and Jewelles to the same, noone. Ornaments thereunto belonginge valued att xxvjs. vd.

SPICERS CHAUNTRIE, ffounded by oone Richarde Spicer, for a priest to Synge in the seid parish Church for ever, & oone yerely obitte to be there kepte. William Hunte,<sup>2</sup> Incumbente there, of the age of xl yeris, havynge noe other livinge then in the seid service vij li. xvij d. ob. The Landes and Tenements belonginge to the same are of the yerelic value of xij li. iiij s., whereof in reprises yerely v s. vj d., and so remayneth clere by yere xj li. xvij s. vj d. Plate and Jewells to the same, noone. Ornamentes valued att xv s. x d.

A CHAUNTRIE, CALLED CROWDE SERVICE, ffounded by divers well disposed persons, for a priest to Synge in the said parish Church, within the Crowdes there for ever. Incumbente noone, nor sythens thanunuciation laste. The Landes and Tenements belonginge to the same are of the yerely value of vj li. xijs. viij d. whereof in reprises yerelic xjs., and so remayneth clere by yere vj li. xx d. Plate and Jewells to the same, noone; Ornamentes valued att xlix s. ij d.

THE CHAPPELL OR FRATERNITIE OF THE ASSUMPCION OF OUR LADIE, ffounded by dyverce persons, and the landes geven by severall deedes to the Master and Brethrens of the seid fraternytie, or Brotherhood, to these ententes and uses, partelye to and for the fyndinge of a priest to Synge Divyne Service in the seid Chappell for ever, whyche Chappell is within the parishe, and distante from the parishe Church abowte a Butte shoote, and partelie for the ffindinge of certeyne priests and clerkes to singe masse every Saterdaie in the same Chappell, & to kepe dyverce obittes, and to distribute certeyn money to the poore people and prisoners, and also the rest of the issuez and profittes of the seid landes (theis thinges done) and the quyte rentes paid, to be wholie converted and bestowed towarde the maynteynance & repayrynge of 1 David Thomas granted a pension of 100 shillings.

2 William Hunte, granted a pension of 100 shillings.

the Bridge of Bristowe aforesaid, piers, arches, and walls there for the defence thereof agaynste the Rages of the Sea, cbbynge and flowing daylie under the same. Thomas King,<sup>1</sup> Incumbent there, of thage xliiij yeres, havinge no other livinge then in the seid service, by yere vij li. The landes and Tenements belonging to the same are of the yerelie value of xxvij li. vj s., whereof in Reprizes yerelie iiij li. xiiij s. A Bailiffe's fee graunted by patente for terme of life, by yere xxvj s. viij d. To the poor yerelie, x s., and so remayneth clere by yere xx li. xvj s. iiij d. Ornamentes and Goodes thereunto belonginge, valued att vij li. xi s. ; Plate and Jewelles to the same xx ounces. Leade wherewith halfe the chappell is covered, esteemed at iij ffooder,<sup>2</sup> Rentes valued att lxij s.

1 Thomas Kynge granted a pension of £4

2 The weight of a ffooder was about 19½ cwt.

N.B.—The several pensions above mentioned wore appointed and confirmed under the Great Seal, 20th June. 2nd, Edw. VI., and Letters Patent, Tested at Westminster, by Richard Sakewell 1st Sept. following.

Boss, mentioned ante p. 170.